IRELAND IS VOTED BY HOUSE OF LORDS

Vote is 120 to 36-Regarded as Paving Way for Better Feeling.

LONDON, Dec. 2 .- The south of Ireland is to have a Senate by vote of the House of Lords, which has defeated the Government on this importan vote was 120 to 36. This is regarded here as paving the way for a better feeling on the Irish issue, which has become more and more bitter every day of late.

Lord Birkenhead, Lord High Chancellor, for the Government, opposed the amendment on the ground that such a senate must be preponderantly nomi-native, and there was no hope of forc-ing such a second chamber on southern ireland. He emphasized the Gov-ernment's desire that the question of framing a Senate should be left to
